PRESS RELEASE

“ARMED & DANGEROUS” FATHER & SON WORKSHOP

Raleigh, North Carolina — February 9, 2026 Fathers and sons in the community are warmly invited to participate in a dynamic workshop aimed at empowering young men to tackle life’s challenges through Christ.

The event will unite fathers (or father figures/mentors) and sons for a time of fellowship, learning, discussion, and collaborative activities focused on biblical teachings. The objective is to assist young men in recognizing their identity in Christ, cultivating godly character, and acquiring skills to manage real-life challenges—such as discovering purpose through faith.

Participants can look forward to candid conversations, engaging discussions, activities, and uplifting messages. They will delve into subjects like tackling crime, identity, responsibility, peer pressure, leadership, decision-making, and upholding strong values in today’s society.

Attendees can anticipate:

Engaging faith-based discussions

Practical tools for overcoming real-life challenges

Opportunities for meaningful father-son connection
